

What is Night Vision?

Animals with NIGHT VISION can see well in the dark because they have large PUPILS to let in more light. They also have many more RODS in their RETINAS than humans. RODS help animals detect motion, even at night.

Color these animals with night vision.

BLIND AS A BAT?
Bats aren't blind at all. In fact, many bats can see very well.